ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAMS.

HAVAS AGENCY

Vienna, 17th.

Telegraphic advices from Belgrade announce that the Servian army, having routed the Bulgarian forces on the frontier, is marching on the capital, Sofia.

Paris, 17th

The Radical organs commenting on the declaration of the Ministers yesterday in Parliament, criticise in very severe terms the programme of the Brisson Cabinet, especially in continuing the colonial policy of Minister Ferry.

Vienna, 18th.

PRESS TELEGRAMS

Constantinople, 17th—It was stated last night that the Conference will continue in spite of the Bulgaro-Servian war.

The Ambassadors are unanimously in favor of the status quo ante.

London, 17th—The Daily Telegraph states that a petition has been sent from Sophia to St. Petersburg, signed by a considerable number of persons, and asking Russia to deliver Bulgaria from the grasp of a foreigner. The foreigner is Prince Alexander. It is rumored that King Milan, at the head of a detachment of his forces, attacked Prince Alexander, and was obliged to beat a retreat.

Pirot (Servia), 17th—Five hundred Bulgarians have been taken prisoners. The telegraph clerks have received orders not to transmit telegrams from the correspondents of foreign newspapers with reference to the movements of the army.

Paris, 17th—The Constantinople correspondent of the Journal des Debats states that Turkey has refused to interfere in the squabbles of Bulgaria and Servia.

M. Brisson delivered a speech in the Chamber of Deputies on the political programme of the Government, which was cordially received by the Deputies. The allusion to the refusal of the Government to grant free pardon to political prisoners was received with cheers.

Regnia (N.W.)—At 8.20 o'clock this morning the execution of Riel, whose death-warrant arrived yesterday, took place. The insurgent was a well-educated man, and possessed, to an eminent degree, those qualities which enabled him to exercise a great ascendancy over his followers. His appearance, with a short-cut brown beard, and the hair thrown back, discovering a magnificent forehead, was calculated to excite sympathy.

At the last moment he resolved not to speak from the gallows.

Montreal, 17th—Amongst the French Canadians the greatest excitement and agitation prevails in consequence of the execution of Riel.

Five hundred students made a demonstration last night, cheering for Riel, and with the tricolour, hooting the Minister, Sir John MacDonald. It is probable that another demonstration will be made to-night.

Pittsburg, 17th—The Knights of Labour are taking energetic measures to enforce the law which limit a day's labour to 8 hours.

Montevideo 18th—The Nacion's article yesterday has created the greatest agitation in political circles. The indignation of the opposition has been roused, by the almost open hints to Santos's reelection to the Presidency. The article in question, although written in a masterly style, contains allusions of the most unblushing servility to the 'great' qualities of the actual President. The probability, therefore, of an official candidate to the future presidency is entirely out of the question.

The Oriental Consul in Lisbon has arrived in the Senegal.

The Siglo devotes a leading article to the public land question and strongly condemns the negotiation of the state lands. The Chambers to-day will discuss the public land project. It is stated that a powerful opposition has been formed to attack the project.

Invitations have been sent to many families in Buenos Ayres to attend the inaugural musical entertainment of the new Conservatory.

D. Andres Lamas, who was, in 1849, entrusted with the rather thankless task of writing a book on the Banda Oriental, has received orders to return all books and documents lent him for the purpose by Government.

The duel announced to take place, between the editors of Patria and the Situacion is to come off in B. Ayres shortly.

Rosario, 18th—On Friday night the wheat and linseed crops in the Santa Teresa Colony were almost completely destroyed by a terrible hail-shower.

FROM OUR BROTHER-EDITOR.

London, 16th.

In another month we shall be on the eve of the elections, the result of which may be as great a surprise as the recent elections in France. Lord Salisbury has written to a Dublin journalist that they will commence about November 17th, and it is understood they will last a fortnight. It is generally supposed that Mr. Chamberlain will enter the House with a following of 200 members, and Mr. Parnell with 80 or perhaps 90: as to the other component parts nobody has a clear idea, but Mr. Goschen, one of the shrewdest men in England, is hedging, having again gone over to the Liberals, from which one may imagine that the Conservatives have no chance.

Cardinal Manning has issued a manifesto—"How Catholics should vote"—in which he urges the test-question to every candidate should be—"Will you vote for an enquiry into the present Board School system?" Certainly, if tyranny be iniquitous, the present system is the most nefarious thing tolerated in England since Charles the First's ship money. There is but one country in the world where a perfect school system exists, namely, Canada: everybody has to pay school rates, and every child must attend some school, but the parent is allowed to choose the denomination.

All the Church of England people and the Jews are with Cardinal Manning in this matter, and strongly opposed to the Chamberlain-Mundella programme, which is to confiscate the Church revenues and give them to the schools. The Cardinal also recommends Catholics to oppose any candidate who goes in for dis-establishing the Church of England, as it is a question of Paganism against Christianity.

The Radicals hardly conceal their contempt for everything that savours of religion, their motto being, "if people are foolish enough to think they have souls, it is only right they should bear the cost themselves of priests and churches." There is really very little difference between Dilke, Chamberlain, Mundella, the deceased Gambetta and his successors, whose watchword is, "wherever you see a priest, fire!"

This revival of Paganism, 1500 years after the death of Julian the Apostate, is a remarkable feature of our time, and reminds us of Disraeli's words, that "a struggle between Christianity and Paganism will mark the close of the 19th century."

Alarming rumors were afloat yesterday about Burmah, where King Theebaw has been confiscating a British steam-packet company. Lord Dufferin has sent reinforcements to Rangoon, and hostilities are hourly expected. This is ominous, coming so close upon the news (last month) of a secret treaty between France and Burmah. However, if King Theebaw be wise he will withdraw his insolent reply to Lord Dufferin, and give satisfaction; otherwise he will probably find himself before long a companion of Araby Pasha in the island of Ceylon, and his territory annexed to our settlement of Rangoon.

There is an uneasy feeling also about Servia, King Milan being supposed to have made a secret treaty with Greece for the partition of Macedonia. The Sultan has sent forces to Salonica. Meantime Austria seems to encourage the Servians to make confusion, on the old principle of "rio revuelto ganan los pescadores." A Servian loan for one million sterling has been concluded at Vienna, and the roads from Austria to Belgrade are covered with supplies of all kinds.

The recent New South Wales loan, for 5½ millions sterling in 3½ per cents, was subscribed at 91¾, which is equal to 3⅞ per cent stock (3.80) at par. Some of the financial papers censure that colony for borrowing 11 millions during the current year, bringing up the N. S. Wales debt to 30 millions, but they seem to overlook the fact that the colony owns state-railways worth 20 millions, which are giving 4 per cent net returns on cost.

In to-day's Times you will see a report of the G. Southern railway annual meeting (which I enclose); it is very satisfactory, and speaks highly for the management of the line and the growing resources of the Southern camps.

By the Royal Mail steamer of Nov. 9th Dr. Leeson will leave for Buenos Ayres; his absence will be much felt by the Spanish and South American residents in London and 50 miles around, among whom his name and professional services are a household word.

The death of Mr. Williamson is much regretted by Anglo-Porteños in this country, who remember his sterling qualities and unaffected singleness of mind.

THREE YEARS' WORK.

When, on the 19th November 1882, six thousand people filled the Paseo Julio and stormed the carriages of the Ensenada Railway, to witness the laying of the foundation stone of La Plata, all thought that they were off their heads and had gone to inaugurate the grandest joke of the 19th Century; not that there lacked sound reasons for fixing a new capital for the wealthiest province of the Republic; not that there existed anything very uncommon in the starting of a city, but there was something so preposterous, so incongruous and so ridiculous in the ambition to found a brand new town in the middle of the camp and at the gate of this capital that the shafts of irony struck home and reflected the opinion of the public.

It will ever be a case of mental aberration on the part of the Buenos Aires Government, and to the present day we are at a loss to discover why the foundation of a new town should have been preferred to the far more economical and convenient policy of choosing Bahia Blanca, Azul, or Mercedes for capital of the province. Common sense advocated the latter line of conduct, but ambition clung to the former, and the most hazardous of all undertakings was begun. The foundation stone of La Plata was laid, the occupation of the desert plain was inaugurated and the pioneers of the mush-room settlement set to work amid the jeers and sneers of the whole republic.

Who does not remember the 19th November 1882? Who can forget Dr Plaza's speech and Dr Rocha's answer, or the tallow candles that graced the festive board? The very guests were in convulsions. La Plata then was an estancia house, surrounded by a wood, a few wooden stands and several hundred tents, whilst the eye could sweep the broad expanse of the camp to the horizon. The birth of the infant settlement was not promising and few of the 6,000 guests, who attended the inauguration expected anything to rise out of the embryonic place. The most ridiculous notions, however, take shape in the Plate, and La Plata is another instance of the vitality of the country and of the gigantic results that follow perseverance.

Time works great changes, but there is no greater change in this country than that which has transformed the pampa estancia of Iraola into a blooming city in the short span of three years. The place has been touched as by a magician's wand and the town appears to have dropped from the skies between night and morning. Although only 20 leagues from this capital, there are comparatively few people in Buenos Aires aware of the proportions or advance of La Plata. We all talked of it as moonshine. We were never more mistaken, and if we wish to feel the pulse of the wonderful growth of this country a visit to La Plata will make us pause in wonder at the sight.

Where three years ago there only stood an estancia, stands to-day a beautiful town of twenty thousand inhabitants, brand new, with that stamp of novelty that clashes with all our preconceived notions. As you step out of the railway carriage, you rub your eyes and inquire, is this South America? Well paved streets converging from all sides on the Square, colossal public buildings and neat private dwellings greet the eye of the visitor, who is obliged to collect his thoughts before he can take in the surroundings. The change, indeed, is great; he drops from the retrograde Spanish regime of the city of Buenos Aires into the centre of the most advanced and most modern impressions. The railway station alone is a subject for study; it is not as grand as that of Stuttgart, the finest in Europe, but it is worthy of the wealthiest capital in the world. But, what staggers one, is the bare idea that the numerous public buildings of La Plata are all built on the same colossal and extravagant style.

The Government house, the museum, the banks, the station are immense buildings that completely eclipse all the monuments of the national capital. Money has been showered on all sides and the results are surprising. Talk of improvised towns in the United States! there is nothing we have ever heard of to equal this sudden metamorphosis of the desert Pampa plain into a stirring city of palatial buildings.

Uncle Sam outgrew his pantaloons and became too big for his boots. No fear of this ever happening in La Plata. This new town may grow at the present rate for the next five centuries, may grow until its limbs stretch to Bahia Blanca or Cape Horn, but it will never grow too big for its public buildings, not even if the Lilliputians of the present merge into Brobdignags in the distant future.

There is a restless genius at work in the new city; not satisfied with port works that will cost millions, with monuments that would meet the wants of a city a large as London, the feverish spirit of activity is bent on building a cathedral bigger than St. Peter's in Rome. The facility with which millions of money are obtained and absorbed, the atmosphere of a new town impregnated with brick dust and lime, and the glorious sight of monuments raising their proud heads above the dead level of the plain, have turned the heads of the men in the Provincial Government House. They are intoxicated with a splendor that breeds splendor and they are rushing into a magnificence worthy of the Arabian tales.

The founders of the new city may feel proud of their success. Population and private enterpise have followed in the wake of the millions scattered by the Government. La Plata, with its 20,000 inhabitants, is a model city; it is a Parisian oasis in the pampa plain, and all foreigners inspecting the Plate should pay it a visit, as it is the most extraordinary feature of Argentine progress; and one calculated to convince the impartial observer that the republic is speeding ahead so fast that it is no wonder it flies off at a tangent at times.

To conclude we may observe that if the federalization of the city of Buenos Ayres marked a new era in our political career, the foundation and extraordinary success of La Plata speak a still greater change in the social organization of the country. The old characteristic features of the republic are all missing in La Plata; it looks like the birth of a civilization revolving in a new orbit. You may travel all over South America, and everywhere you will stumble over the same deep and grim features, the same architecture, the same habits, the same inveterate system; but in La Plata, nobody can disguise it, the first striking impression received, is the contrast it forms to everything South American. It may be Yankee, British, French, Italian, anything you like, but everybody will agree there is not a trace of Spain about the new city. That this is remarkable, all will acknowledge; it is a change that points to more than a material transformation; it is a stentorian roar that the brains of the men at the head of the province have changed. If you don't believe it, visit the place and witness the creation of three years.

LONDON LETTER.

(From our own Correspondent.)

WAR CLOUDS.

Oct. 15th.

I am looking at a map of "the territory claimed by Servia," which the Daily Telegraph has been kind enough to print for us. For political purposes the map can be reproduced and extended this wise:

	Germany		Russia
		Austrian-Hungary
			Roumania.
	Bosnia.	Servia	Bulgaria
	Montenegro.	Claimed by Servia.	Collared by Bulgaria.
	Albania	Macedonia	Roumelia
		and what remains of
The Adriatic	Greece	The Ægean	Turkey.

Let a line be drawn from Greece to Turkey, and we have the base of a triangle of which Austro-Hungary is the apex; and the figure will represent the Eastern question as it exists ostensibly at this moment. Outside are Germany and Russia, between which countries the ultimate extension of the question lies. Within the memory of middle-aged man, Turkey in the North was a lindero of Austria at Belgrade in Servia, and of Russia in Bessarabia to the north of Roumania. The question now is the line from Montenegro to Eastern Roumelia, and of the claims of Greece for compensation in Macedonia, including the port of Salonica on the Ægean. The existing strife is apparently between the new and smaller States.

Among the larger States Turkey and Austria will be the first to come into conflict, and as Austria has the ambition to possess Salonica, it is not extraordinary that one of the newspaper rumours of the hour refers to the "rapprochement" between Turkey and Greece. Another rumour is more amusing but not less intelligible. The Conference at Constantinople, which was to vindicate the ways of diplomacy to man, is as good as dissolved, or, to speak more accurately, it has never opened. The difficulty was, of course, to accept the Bulgarian annexation of Eastern Roumelia, as an accomplished fact, and, at the same time, hold things together for a little time longer, by a nominal adherence to the Treaty of Berlin. The subject of complaint amongst the baffled Ambassadors was either "no instructions," or conflicting and embarrassing instructions from Russia and Germany. Our map does not include England and France, because they are not immediately concerned, until the Bosphorus and the Ægean are in question. How soon these waters may concern the two great naval and Western Powers we can gather from other newspaper rumour, to the effect that Lord Salisbury and M. de Freycinet have come to a common understanding in regard to the Eastern Question. Similar rumours must naturally be accepted not as representing facts but possibilities

The diplomatic approach of Turkey towards Greece will not suit Austria; neither will the possible understanding between England and France suit Germany.

In the meanwhile, another Eastern Question, and in the far East, has been growing, and at this moment bears a serious aspect. What M. de Freycinet has himself called "a restless consul," a M. Haas, at Mandalay, has been negotiating nominally on behalf of his Government—the French Government—some arrangement which might, if left unobserved, have grown into a treaty with King Thee Baw of Burmah, and even have finally bloomed into a French annexation in those regions, which would have—so Mr. Colquhoun and his friends say—cut off the trade of British India with the Shan provinces and with China in general. The India Government is reported to recommend the immediate annexation of Burmah by Great Britain; and what is certain is, that an artillery officer, Colonel Carey, has been appointed to the command of the Indian troops on the Burmese frontier, and that the British Government is hesitating over the wording of an ultimatum to be sent to King Thee Baw, in reply to a discourteous diplomatic note he addressed to the British Commissioner in Burmah, declining to discuss the merits of a dispute pending between his officials and the Bombay and Burmah Trading Association.

It must be here observed, that Sir Charles Dilke, the Radical jingo and "expansion of England" initiator, has twitched Lord Salisbury with his hesitating policy in regard to Burmah, so that the Radical mouths being closed on that point, and the Conservative mouths being of no great consequence one way or the other, his Lordship, without waiting for the elections, can signalise his Premiership by commencing a war which the newspapers already allude to as a "little war." That depends on the foreign policy of M. de Freycinet, and on how far European politics, and particularly at Constantinople, require the alliance of England and France, otherwise a "little war" in Burmah might involve England and China in hostilities with France, which would move Russia towards Herat, and leave with Germany, Austria and Italy to decide whether the time was opportune for dismembering the Turkish Empire, planting an Italian colony in Tripoli, and imposing more scientific frontiers on certain European states. It must be added to all this that Mr. Bernard, the British Commissioner at Mandalay, and who ought to know something about it, is strongly opposed to the annexation of Burmah. Perhaps his reasons are only local reasons. He may be one of the old school, and with a liver out of order, he may be indisposed to active measures, and probably forgets that new markets are the one remedy for the existing depression of trade. By the bye, not the "one remedy," for every man, as well as every trade, has its particular remedy.

I see that the Vicar of a place called field, complains that he has had only in his parish one burial for the last twelve months. He attributes the fact to monometallism and to one-sided free trade. He cannot complain of markets, for there is an old purchaser who will fork in any quantity of the commodities he has to offer.

RIO NEGRO LETTER.

Choel-e-Choel, Oct. 17th, 1885.

Dear STANDARD,

Leaving Balclutha, after some seven leagues' journey, in which there is nothing particularly worthy of notice, except that one finds a Scotchman and three Welshmen established in various points, the traveller arrives at the foot of the 1st Travesia without being at all impressed, unless it be unfavorably by the quality of the camps; but the "Turco" (a Montenegrin), his camp, and his island, above all, claim attention. Here the weary traveller can obtain grapes, peaches, melons and "sandias" in the season and a "refresco"—always acceptable when one is doing a journey "á cheval"—in payment of which the unfortunate will have to unburthen himself of some few dollars.

Next, the Travesia has to be passed, and that means six leagues of a good road, but without water. A league further, and one reaches the town or fort of "Conesa"—a straggling arrangement made up of four "esquinas," the Telegraph Office and Cuartel. Hence for a distance of nearly three leagues, excepting one particularly good but small rincon, there is nothing whatever to attract the attention of a passenger, unless it be the "salitrales"—which are, alas! too numerous—and then one enters on the late General Villegas' camp, and immediately feels some hope for the Rio Negro's future—a sentiment which, by-the-bye, gains on one during the five leagues of really good pasture land which belong to the lamented General's widow. Half a league onward, and a change comes over the spirit of the dream, and the tourist finds himself surrounded by an ugly "monte" composed of "chañares" and various other thorny shrubs, and then he enters on General Winter's camp, another expanse of say some five leagues, interesting only in so far that it is thickly interspersed with "lagunas" and heavily stocked with sheep and cattle. Two leagues further brings one to a very hospitable ranch, occupied by a charming Frenchman named Luciano, who represents Messrs. Bertorello & Co. of Buenos Ayres and Patagones. From here it is but a step to Gorozabel's place, also a favorite halting-point for the old stagers, given that the patron is at home. Then comes another "Travesia," stretching from "Negro Muerto" to the "bajada," a good 10 leagues. One is forced to carry a supply of water in this passage, but on arriving at the "bajada" under the genial influence of Du Andres Andersen and his hospitable wife, one forgets all his trials in the pleasing amusement of speaking English, Danish, French, Spanish, or German, with his good host and hostess. Few travellers leave Tragua-Tragua without experiencing a doubt that they are leaving one of the last traces of civilization behind them. This camp borders on that of Comdte. Palacios and is owned by Comdte. Diaz and Mr. Andersen; as camp it is excellent camp and above the average run of camps on the Rio Negro. Palacio's camp is good in the 'rincones' and for agricultural purposes. Passing that, one covers some 3 leagues ere reaching Choel-e-Choel, in which there are exceptionally good 'rincones,' occupied almost in their majority by Comdte. Ruiz. Choel-e-Choel is, so to speak, a mistake; not that it is not of importance in every way but it has always been subjected to antagonism and has had to compete with Roca, a town very much-over-favored by influential men in authority.

From Choel-e-Choel one speak naturally of going to the estancia, which is the 'San Pablo' establishment, owned by Comdte. Belisle, and so ably managed by his brother-in-law, Mr Eustace Jones. Here the traveller is relieved to find the first wire-fencing and the only one between Patagones and the Andes, and here again he is more than pleased to find a magnificent brick house consisting of some 14 rooms, adorned with a miniature 'mirador balconies, roomy halls and spacious corridors, all overlooking an extensive garden, recently laid down and watered by a pump of considerable power. The entrance to this splendid establishment is formed by a willow avenue of some 30 squares long.

When the visitor arrives at Mr Jones', he is struck with the comfortable cottage, with its surrounding of willows 'ancient and weeping,' its meadow, occupied by two well-known racing sires, a couple of Hereford bulls and a few hayricks; its poultry yard in which one is rather startled to see Brahmas, Catalanes, Geese and Ostriches, all mixed up together; its splendid view of the river, its stables and out-houses. One could be excused for imagining himself in some old fashioned farm-house of say county Limerick, on entering the dining room. Mr and Mrs Jones instantly make one feel at home, and the well-appointed table makes the weary exile forget completely that he is on the frontier.

My letter is already too long, so although I am still almost 40 leagues from Roca and have not half done with "San Pablo." I must close hoping that some more able pen than mine will conclude this chapter on the Rio Negro, its camps and establishments.

Yours truly

St. Phillip.

SPORTING INTELLIGENCE.

The approach of the race meeting at Palermo on the 22nd inst. has failed to raise hitherto the interest that is generally felt by our sporting world on the week proceeding the race day. The programme is both varied and interesting, and a number of our cracks are interred for the six events which it comprises. The race that is attracting most notice up to now is the first in the programme, the Premio Velocidad. Fourteen horses are entered, but the owner of Hebreo, which is entered both in this and the one that follows, has declared that he will only run in the second. Of the thirteen remaining most, if not all, will put in an appearance, although Nereo and Tel-el-Kebir are also entered in other races. Leonor, Signet, and Diana will meet again although under altered circumstances as to weights.

At the La Plata races Leonor received 16 kilos from Diana and 11½ from Signet—now she only gets 10 kilos from Diana and 8 from Signet, which will make a great difference. The results of the remates held until now give the following: Signet 4 to 1—Diana 9 to 2—Atrevido 6 to 1—Mercurio 13 to 2—Nereo and Belvoir 10 to 1—Leonor 12 to 1 and Miss J Rovel 15 to 1. The remates of the second race have been very insignificant. Banjo is made a favorite, although being entered in another race, nothing officialey is known whether he will run in this or be reserved for the last race. The Premio de Honor which is the great attraction of the day, the prize being a cup given by Mr. P. Acebal, besides 1000 Nats in money. Probably Escoces, Beansoleit and Coronel will try issue again, and we anticipate a different result for the one at La Plata. This will, no doubt, be an interesting race, and up to the present the representative of the blue and white colors has secured the largest amount of supporters. The race that follows the Cup Race will probably be reduced to a match between Terminacion and Souvenir. The distance is about 2 miles and three quarters. Terminacion allows Souvenir 15½ kilos, about 33 lbs, which considering the length of the race may give Souvenir a chance of beating his formidable antagonist. In the other two races no remates have been held, but perhaps in the three remaining days public opinion will assume a more definite coloring.

The usual hot weather crusade against the British Cemetery has begun in the papers. If the other cemeteries could boast of being as well kept, it would be well for them and the public.

A RUN IN THE ISLANDS.

To the Editor of the STANDARD.

Dear Sir,

Many people believe that the Islands are a myth conceived in the brain of Marcos Sastre. I have come to see them, and find that Sastre, in his inimitable "Tempe Argentino," has not been able to tell one-half of the miracles of Nature that every hour display themselves in this enchanting corner of the world.

I came a few days ago from Nueve de Julio on purpose to see these islands, and, although I make all discount for my eyes so long starved of such scenes, I have not, since I came, ceased to wonder and admire.

From the Arroyo Lujan one goes quietly up among those glorious trees, wishing for another view and never disappointed. The holy quiet inspired by the scenery makes up for many years of disappointment.

From the Arroyo Lujan one comes up to Quelves, and in passing see that pretty place made by Sarmiento. Soon after that I came to my destination, which was the house of Don Francisco Zubia, where I was treated with that singular hospitality known only, as far as my experience goes, among people who live somewhat removed from each other.

From Quelves to Espera Grande, and then to Toro, I rowed with the most singular delight; but when I came to Gaviota, new scenes opened to my view. Who can imagine those splendid scenes! Many of our painters, if they only knew that the Tempe Argentino exists, would be here at once.

Here I could see the magnificent passion flower, bringing to memory all that we hold sacred; and there the magnolia shedding its gentle perfume to the breeze.

Suddenly I am lost. The arroyo has become narrow, and I find a strong current running. "Where am I now?" I am obliged to ship the oars. Soon I pass a "casilla." I shout to the shore. "Pase Vd. mas adelante; ahi esta la fabrica Inglesa." I am in the "Angostura," and after a short quarter of an hour I pull up in front of a house where a nice, gentlemanly-looking fellow asks me to come on shore and have a glass of wine to refresh myself. I found out afterwards that he is Mr. Watts, of the Tigre Packing Co.; and almost immediately after parting with him I dropped into the "Carapachay" to find Mr Calzettá, the owner of the Hotel, who speaks English almost as well as I do myself.

I went down in his pretty launch Crabtree to the Tigre, and saw by the way the "Chalet Bullrich," which is almost like seeing Naples. "See it, and die!"

The only blot upon the whole scene is the wreck of the Fulminante, which ought to be blown up, as I think in the course of time it will impede traffic. The Government, in its own interest, ought to see to that.

Here you have, Mr Editor, the history of a run in the Islands. If you think it worth publishing, you may be sure that I shall not be offended.

Yours, etc.,

Arab.

THE RUSSIAN AND AUSTRIAN ARMIES.

To the Editor of the STANDARD.

Dear Sir,

I noticed in your paper of to-day a note upon the respective strength of the Russian and Austrian armies, which I think rather misleading.

You state that the total strength of Russia amounts to 841 thousand men, and that of Austria to 268 thousand, and that in the event of war Russia would have a decided superiority over Austria.

The numbers you give are not exactly erroneous, but require to be analyzed in order to arrive at a correct conclusion, and I think it can be shown that in the event of war Russia would have no superiority over her rival.

The army of Austria on a peace footing is, as you say, about 268 thousand, but those form the active available army of regular troops, whereas the 841 thousand you mention as the Russian strength is formed by a regular army of 530 thousand and a force of Cossacks, irregular troops, local troops and instruction troops, dispersed over the immensity of the empire and not available for a European compaign with the exception of some of the Cossack regiments.

Such is the position on a peace footing, although the Russian statistics are not so worthy of credit as might be desired.

On a war footing, however, the aspect of affairs alters materially. Austria has a thoroughly efficient military system on the Prussian model, and could in a short time put into the field an efficient force of 774 thousand trained troops with a reserve of 266 thousand, making a total of 1,040,000.

Russia professes on the other hand to possess on a war footing an army of 986 thousand men, with a reserve of 563 thousand and 141 thousand Cossacks, making a grand total of 1,689,000.

The Russian military system, however is very rudimental and she has never shown that she could collect such an army except on paper. In fact she has shown the contrary, for in 1877, after twelve months' preparation, she had to drain European Russia of all its available troops in order to maintain an army of 250,000 men, in Turkey, and had to solicit the assistance of the Roumanian army of 40,000 in order to master Osman Pasha at Plevna. Russia is obliged to keep such a large force employed in keeping order in her dominions and especially in Poland, that she can never dispose of all her forces against a foreign enemy, and in case of a war with Austria, I would back the latter.

C Stuart.

Buenos Ayres, Nov. 18.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

To-day is the third anniversary of the foundation of that city of palaces and electric lights—La Plata. This auspicious event gives all the employees of the Province a full holiday, although the general public believes that their holiday extends from bloom to bloom.

Saturday and Sunday will be the farewell nights of that charming and spoiled child of the B. Aires public, Duse-Cecchi. General weeping is expected at the Politeama, and the Fire Brigade are busily engaged taking the necessary precautions, lest the audience be drowned in tears when the Duse utters her last farewell.

Senator Rocha left for La Plata yesterday, to celebrate the third birth date of his rising city. A Te Deum will be sung in the church, and a spread at the Government House will follow. A 'carne con cuero' in the 'Bois' would have been a great hit.

General Sarmiento is preparing his baggage for another journey in the editorial 'bus. His new paper is expected to appear shortly under the rather prosy name Censor. "Cerberus" would be a better name, as the grand old man is fond of biting all round in the past, present and future, especially in warm weather.

Mr. Wm. Paats gave a grand breakfast to the Governor of San Luis last week. The whole affair was most "recherché" and the speeches were spicy. Everybody who is anybody attended the banquet, and spoke in the most enthusiastic terms of the progress of the country, of agriculture, of the pastoral industry, and of the roseate prospects of the future. The company broke up in great spirits, charmed with the hospitality of the popular Dutch gentleman, who owns large tracts of land in that province.

The Health Board of the Mount have imposed a quarantine of eight days on the Magellan for having called at Spanish ports on the way out. There is no truth in the rumour of sickness of any kind on board.

An unseemly row took place in a Rochista Club, in Calle Entre Rios, on Tuesday night. Although all the members were sober, they began fighting with revolvers, knives and swordsticks. The police interfered, locked up the offenders and forwarded the President of the club, his son and servant, badly wounded, to the hospital. The President of the committee was shot through both arms; his son had a gashed head and the servant likewise. This is edifying.

More blood flowing in Santiago. At the inscription of votes last Sunday, there was a row at the tables; police interfered; one man was buried and another carried away on a shutter. These melancholy accidents are expected to continue until the final elections for the new President. Justice, we greatly fear, plays a very lame part in these matters.

The Rev. Dr. James Smith will preach on Sunday next at 10.30 a.m., at the house of Mr N Brunt, Ensenada.

The Panorama opens to-day. We hear it has the most brilliant prospects from every point of view.

The first rose of summer in the 'caso sospechoso' line is of the usual hue. A poor wight who is dying of a galloping consumption was selected by some wiseacre as a bad case of yellow fever, and then the Three Black Crows element came to the front and the thing was done. To-morrow or next day there will be a Juliette case and another scare.

We had the pleasure of visiting the new Kosmos Club yesterday. It is quite a "bijou" in the club line, and can certainly hold its own with any other in town. The furniture is all new from England, of the very best, and in excellent taste. The splendid billiard table is also from one of the first London makers. The arrangements are ample and perfect, and reflect great credit on the Committee and Secretary: There are reading rooms, a billiard room, library, card room, writing room, bar, fine bath room and a large airy 'patio.' In fact there is nothing wanting and nothing superfluous, which we take to be what always should be aimed at in club, castle and 'casa.' It is quite a mistake to suppose that this pleasant addition to Club-land has the remotest view of opposition to any existing club. We wish the Kosmos the very best success, and feel confident that it will do well. It has made a first-rate start.

The weather looked pluvious yesterday. Rain is awfully wanted in the Interior. Things are bad in the wheat colonies, but not so bad as grain speculators want to make out.

Speaking of a certain general whom he professed to admire, a political orator said that on the field of battle he was always found where the bullets were thickest. "Where was that?" asked one of the auditors. "In the ammunition waggon," said another.

The Tribuna declares categorically that the Loan is done. This is such a peculiarly, exceptional country that we believe if the Loan fell through to-morrow the premium on gold would, possibly, fall.

The latest 'canard' in the old Mount is that a revolution to trip up Santos is being got up in La Plata. There is a whisper that the army is getting fidgetty. The other night, when going his rounds, the general found that the "Gefe" and "segundo Gefe" of a regiment were playing and drinking in an "almacen" (What a place for officers and gentlemen!) near the barracks, when they ought to have been on duty. He was afraid to cashier them, however.

The Prensa sneers, and very properly, at the State Banks again dreaming of 'valorizing' the paper money by reducing discounts, etc. There is only one way to appreciate paper, and that is by sound financing. Of this the country has no chance whatever till the new Government comes in; and "quien sabe" if even then. Meanwhile gold is fast approaching the rate in Chile.

What queer fellows they are in Santiago del Estero. The Corporation there has bought a lot of second hand railway materials to mend the streets. How funny to see streets paved with broken screws, bolts, tires etc!

Riel has been shot. Quite right. The Mossoo portion of the Canadians thought we were afraid of them, and wouldn't hang the reb. They now know better.

It's useless to correct our colleagues again. They still persist in styling that wretched bit of space near the Old Market "un square."

There was some move made yesterday to have the syphon under the Riachuelo begun at once; but the Engineers' Department, and the Minister of the Interior, and the Oficina de Inspeccion, and the City Improvement Board, and Lord knows how many more Boards and bores are all in the way, busy unwinding red tape and shedding torrents of ink. Mr Nystromer is ready to begin at any moment.

The races at the Mount on the 8th prox. will be rather swell. Some tilbury races are on the card. This is not sport. Too much of the 'commis voyageur' about it.

There is some talk of another big railway loan for Buenos Ayres province. What will they say in London?

The Prensa discloses what looks like an audacious attempt to deceive President Roca and levy black mail on one of the public at the same time, by an employee.

The Pampa gives the police a deserved dressing for their sins of omission and commission. A ruffianly "vigilante" nearly caused an old gentleman to die in the street at 1 a.m. on Tuesday last by preventing his knocking for assistance at Mr William Cranwell's shop, where there is a night service. The poor old buffer had to limp away, though painfully in want of the assistance he could have obtained if allowed to knock. This stupid brute of a policeman ought to be dismissed from the force. There is no law that we know of to prevent people knocking at doors day or night. If there be, it is only another instance of all the petty, arbitrary nonsense the public submit so tamely to in this free-as-air country. Nothing is more absurd and galling than the monstrous practice of arresting both the aggrieved and the aggressor. If a man smashes your best hat and knocks you down in the street, you are arrested as well as he, and it is quite a toss-up, depending on the more or less obtuseness of the policeman, whether you are not punished for being assaulted, instead of him for assaulting you.

The Moor is dead. Not the Moor of Venice, who never lived, so could n't well die, but the Moor de Peña, the greatest trotting horse ever seen this side of the Equator.

"How do we hear?" asks a scientist. That is easily told. Somebody tells a friend and tells him not to tell, and the friend of the teller tells a friend of ours, and he tells us; and so we hear.

The National Bank is still trying to secure the Colon Theatre, but the 'tramites' are as long and weary as a trip to the South Pole. What about Ferrari's monstrous contract.

The fire in the Plaza Constitucion station on Tuesday was a miserable affair, barely worth mentioning.

There'll be a furious howl from our patriotic colleague El Industrial. The Lord Mayor (May he be forgiven by our contemporary before he dies!) has absolutely been, and gone, and bought 4,000 tons of Banda Oriental paving stones, while the Olavarria quarrymen are itching to sell him a very inferior article at a considerably higher price.

What disgusting morbidity of taste some people display. We saw a man on Tuesday with a small piece of the carbonized flesh of one of the poor fellows scalded to death in the fire at Barracas. He had it in a piece of paper and was about to open it to show us, when we drew our six-shooter, and he was round the corner in exactly 7½ seconds.

By the way! Mr Arana, the City Chemist, says that the second class grocers don't put so much poison in their wine as formerly, but, 'en revanche,' they put a deal more water. They have also taken to making raisin wine and selling it as Tokay. The great danger nowadays is silicic acid, used in all kinds of preserving, from ladies' faces to tinned corned beef and beer. The European Governments have prohibited its use; but here, of course, every 'hijo de vecino' can do pretty much as he pleases and Mr Arana is the only man between the public and wholesale poisoning.

"On dit" that there are probabilities that the new issue of forced currency Town Councillors will revive the big French wooden pavement scheme, and try to pass it. Mr Nettleship will come down like a million of 'adoquines' on the Frenchmen, if they attempt any work here, as he holds a patent for the whole republic.

Nobody is allowed into the Policia now after 5 p.m. What a humbug!

What wretched moorings the lightships in the river must have. They never remain in the same place when there is a puff of wind. The Point Indio lightship dragged four miles during the late 'temporal.'

The Industrial Club has presented the eminent clothes-cleaner Mr Prat with a silver medal as big as a saucer. No man deserves it better. If all 'industrias del pais' were as beneficial as Mr. Prat's, undertakers would not make so much money.

In order to give further facilities to passengers from South American ports to England, the Directors of the Pacific Steam Navigation Company have determined that their homeward steamers will call at Plymouth to land passengers. This will enable passengers to reach London and the Midland countries from two to three days earlier than they would by the old system of making Liverpool their first port of call in England, and as the steamers in any case proceed to Liverpool passengers have the option of landing either there or at Plymouth.

Important Notice.
I hereby advise the public that I have established a Gymnasium Institute at Calle Florida 406 where I also apply the MASSAGE SYSTEM as studied and practiced at Dr. KELLGREN'S well known institute in London.
This system has given the most surprising results in curing chest and lung complaints, and all maladies caused by the kidneys and joints, and in any way connected with the nervous system. Thus the celebrated SYSTEM of MASSAGE is recommended as a certain cure for rheumatism, asthma, undeveloped muscles, paralysis, disorders in the digestion and in the circulation of the blood, etc., etc.
I have also a special class for the development of the body and muscles.
The following is the time-table I have arranged for the application of the Massage System:
For Gentlemen 8 a.m. to 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. to 5 p.m.
For Ladies 12½ to 2 p.m.
Consultation hours—11.30 a.m. to 12.30.
Patients can also make arrangements for the application of the Massage System at their own residences.

Amongst these pleasing souvenirs of the season are to be found novelties of the most striking character and perfect gems of art, not only calculated to interest for the hour, but to elevate and improve the taste of old and young.
A special vast department, with an extra body of able assistants is exclusively devoted to this branch of the business where a permanent exhibition of these highly esteemed presents will be held till the termination of the season; the assortment, containing valuable artistic cards, small hand painted on satin, ivory, Bristol board etc etc, as well as less expensive ones, will be always at hand to choose from.

Dysentery, Cholera Fever, Ague Coughs, Colds, &c.
Dr J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne
(Ex Army Medical Staff)
IS THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.
CAUTION—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P. Wood stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was undoubtedly the inventor of Chlorodyne; that the story of the defendant, Freeman, being the inventor was deliberately untrue, which he regretted had been sworn to. Eminent hospital physicians of London stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne; that they prescribe it largely, and mean no other than Dr. Browne's—See Times, July 12th 1864.
The Public, therefore, are cautioned against using any other than
Dr J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne.
REMEDIAL USES AND ACTION.
This invaluable remedy produces quiet, refreshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the system, restores the deranged functions, and stimulates health action of the secretions of the body, without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of opium. Old and young may take it all hours and times when requisite. Thousands of persons testify to its marvellous good effects and wonderful cures, while medical men extol its virtues most extensive.
CHLORODYNE is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.
CHLORODYNE is the best remedy known for coughs, consumption, bronchitis, asthma.
CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in Diarrhose, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery.
CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation and Spasms.
CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout Cancer Toothache, Meningites, &c.
From Symes & Co., Pharmaceutical Chemist, Medical Hall, Simla, Jan. 5th 1880. To J. T. Davenport, Esq., 22, Great Russell Street, Bloomsbury, London—"Dear Sir, we embrace this opportunity of congralulating you upon the wide-spread reputation this justly-esteemed medicine, DR COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE has earned for itself, not only in Hindostan, but all over the East. As a remedy of general utility, we much question whether a better is imported into the country, and we shall be glad to hear of its finding a place in every Anglo-Indian home. The other brands, we are happy to say, are now relegated to the native bazaars, and, judging from their sale, we fancy their sojourn there will be but evanescent. We could multiply instances ad infinitum of the extraordinary efficacy of DR. COLLIS BROWNE S CHLORODYNE in Diarrhoea, and Dysentery, Spasms, Cramps, Neuralgia the Vomiting of Pregnancy, and as a general sedative, that have occurred under our personal observation during many years. In Choleraic Diarrhoea, and even in the more terrible forms of Cholera itself, we have witnessed its surprisingly controlling power. We have never used any other form of this medicine than Collis Browne's, from a firm conviction that it is decidedly the best, and also from a sense of duty we owe to the profession and the public, as we are of opinion that the substitution of any other than Collis Browne's is a "deliberate breach of faith on the part of the chemist to prescriber and patient alike." We are, Sir, faithfully yours, Symes & Co., Members of the Pharm. Society of Great Britain, His Excellency the Viceroy's Chemists."
Extract from the General Board of Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera—"So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of adopting it in all classes."
CAUTION—None genuine without the words 'Dr J. Collis Browne or Chlorodyne' on the Government Stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.

	Nov. 18th.
Gold	50.50 o/o prem.
Cedulas A	98
Cedulas B	94
Cedulas F	79½
Cedulas G	83

There was much excitement in the gold market, and at one time in the morning it was thought that the threatened break in the market had begun, as prices for the end of the month fell 2 per cent notwithstanding that the amount of gold sold cash was much less than usual.

Gold opened at 150 cash and closed at 150.50; amount sold, 85,000.

For Saturday, 54,600 sold at 150.

For the end of the month, 715,000 sold; prices opening at 150, dropping steadily to 148, and closing at 149.50.

For Dec. 31, 410,000, opening at 147.50, dropping to 146.50, and closing at 147.

Cedulas ruled weak to-day, owing to a fresh wheelbarrow full of Series G being thrown on the market, 248,000, sold at 83; and Series F 7000, sold at 79½.

Series A 38,950 at 98
" B 19,000 at 94
" F 3,400 at 79½
" B 1,000 at 96¾

During the sale the uproar around the ring was such that it was difficult to catch the bids. The sale of Series A at 98 establishes a fall of 2 per cent. in this 8 per cent stock, which is very remarkable.

The price of gold seems to hang on the political news from Europe, as very many outsiders, who have no present need of gold, are securing at present prices on long dates, owing to the fear of another war in the East. Still the large and heavy men in the market hold back and in German circles the belief is that so long as the Emperor of Germany holds out there will be no European war. On the other hand the depreciation of our paper money is now so established that native capitalists are all turning their paper into city properties, which, had they done last year, would have secured them from the losses which now they suffer. All the real estate brokers are up to their eyes in business, and the recent sale of Moore's corner at 216,000 $/n has given a fresh spurt to city property. Although we all have the fullest confidence in the country, yet we are not so sure about the paper money next year, and hence it is that people who have their capitals in paper are now so anxious to invest in good marketable real estate.

Exchange brokers report bills offering all round but few takers, and the rates with an advancing tendency.

The Pacific s.s. Magellan arrived in Montevideo to day; her passengers undergo 8 days' quarantine, as she touched at Vigo. Her mails, 21st ult., come up to-night in Cosmos.

Circulars have arrived from England announcing the formation of a new company for the frozen mutton business of the Plate. At the rate this business is marching on it will soon be ahead of Australia and New Zealand.

Mr Casey made a great sale of lambs wool this morning in the Plaza Once; 1500 ar from Tatay at 100 m/c, which for lambs wool is considered a very high price.

The following is a summary of operations effected this morning at the ring during official hours:—

For Saturday 54,600 at 150-150.50
For Nov. 30th 715,000 at 150-149.50-149 to 148.80-50

We note that the Southern Railway has already expended on its three new branches the following sums:—

The Bahia Blanca and Tandil extensions have cost up to 30th June 1885 the sum of £1,853,785, and the Juarez extension £320,678.

Export of lino from Jan. to Oct.—
Year 1884.... 13,468,460
Year 1885.......... 26,152,781

These figures show the rapid growth of lino in the Plate. We await Mr Altgelt's estimates for the new crop.

The balance sheet of the Nat. Bank was out to-day and will be found at foot. We note that the circulation has not been increased to the amount supposed and stands at 32 millions.

The English Bank of the River Plate changed its rate to-day.

Mr Casey sold the following lots this morning:—
1500 ar lambs wool at 100 m/c
1100 wool, Chacabuco, 88
600 Mercedes, 84
600 Bragado, 78
300 lambs, 85.

At afterhours there was very little done, and nothing at all like the business of yesterday evening. We noted a preponderance of sellers; prices closed at—
150 for to-morrow, sellers.
149.50 for end month, sellers.
147. " " December.

Exchange was done at 5 02, and 5.05 francs, and 47⅝-¾ on London. Market rising, and rates would have advanced more, but that Bank exchange in Montevideo has dropped a little.

The sale of the Belgrano Tramway to an English Co. for £300,000 was rumoured this afternoon, £100,000 cash.

The wool of Mr John Meyers, the well-known Lincoln breeder, was sold to-day at the South Market at $110%, in spite of the poor condition of the camp during the winter, and only for this reason it has not reached 125$%, as expected, according to the excellent class of this wool.

With much pleasure we extract the following from the latest Times received by the Dalton. The paragraph will be read with interest, as it points to a revival of trade in the European and American markets:—

"There is a growing impression in commercial circles in Liverpool that the tide of depression has turned, and that the signs of improved trade, though still weak, all point to a revival of business. This tendency is most apparent in the shipping trade, which has suffered with extreme severity. More goods are offering for shipment, the regular liners, are better filled, and steamers which have been lying up are again going into commission. The protracted depression has resulted in the general exhaustion of stocks, and it is argued that once a spirit of confidence is re-established, there will be a rush to fill up the vacuum, and that consequently business will receive a strong stimulus. The first symptoms of revival are looked for in America, and they are said to be already observed in that Continent. All the reports from the U. States point to returning confidence and increasing business. These favourable indications are already felt in Liverpool. During the last two or three weeks there has been a marked increase in the exports of manufactured goods to America, and perhaps no stronger evidence of this fact could be found than in the official statement that the invoices passing through the United States Consulate at Liverpool have increased by 20 per cent within the last few weeks. There has also been a decided augmentation in the tonnage leaving the Mersey, while mercantile men look more hopefully at the immediate prospects. That business is more active at the present time is unquestionable. The point in doubt is whether the improvement is permanent or only transient. It has not yet continued for a sufficient length of time to impart confidence in its stability, and previous disappointments from ephemeral spurts of activity prevent people from being over-sanguine. But the better reports from America and the increasing shipment to that country are regarded as encouraging signs"

The sale of Mr. Lynch's cattle by auction at Chacabuco resulted in the "rodeo" being knocked down at 7.50 m/n 'al corte,' Mr. Garraghan, buyer; the cattle are in good condition and considered cheap.

The Nacion published a letter this morning about the Mortgage Bank and the great scandal of the Provincial Government mortgaging its own lands, when the law orders their sale. The whole market approves of the letter in question, and the matter gives rise to the severest comment. Some parties sai that, if the Mortgage Bank does issue such cedulas, applications will be made to the Bolsa not to allow them to be quoted.

Letters this morning from Santa Fé say that the harvest has already begun, and they are cutting the lino crop; but hands are so scarce that 60 Nats per month is paid for a 'peon'; why on earth does not the Immigration Department send up the thousands landing from the steamers?

Mr. Charles Casado, of Rosario, was welcomed on 'Change; we hear, on good authority, that the Central Argentine Railway Co. is at last about to make the best stroke of business since it missed the Sunchales Railway, and that the Company is treating with Mr. Casado for the purchase of his Railway, and his concession. Mr. Fisher, if he secures this, will bring his Railway down to Picassa, which will be a most advantageous step for the Argentine Central. Passengers then can book through at the Plaza Once station for Cordoba, Tucuman, or Mendoza. Besides, the Central Argentine by continuing the Casado Railway to Picassa, will tap the trade of a large and important and thickly populated district; and the lands are the richest and most fertile in all Santa Fé, and the grand centre of the future colonies in the Southern district of that province.

As we mentioned yesterday, the 25th inst is about the date we expect positive news from London concerning the new loan. The papers authorizing Minister Garcia to sign the Bono general will only arrive in London on 23 or 24th, so that we cannot expect anything much sooner about this long pending business.

We note that the Tribuna Nacional, which is the National Government organ, estimates that full 6,000 leagues of new lands have been stocked and settled on in the present year. This is one of the very best proofs of how the country is going ahead.

The report of the Buenos Ayres Gt. Southern Railway meeting held in London, on the 15th Oct., has been received by the mail. They seem to have had a most animated meeting, to judge by the report, which forms a neat pamphlet of 23 pages. Mr Frank Parish was re-elected chairman and Mr Joseph Pulley, M P., re-elected director. The extensions to Mar del Plata, Tres Arroyos and the three-mile branch along the Riachuelo form the only outstanding works to be closed, on a capital of 7 millions stg.

We have received from Mr Duesberg, of Verviers, a most interesting report on the sheep and cattle business for last year in New Zealand. The figures and sales given will much interest the market; we hope to have room for them to-morrow.

In the recent storm, the pontoon at Point Indio was blown four miles W. of her station, and the last of the unfortunate steamer Hermes was washed away and whatever remained of the cargo in her hold.

The Brazilian steamer Uruguay, that got on the San Pedro Rocks in the Upper Uruguay, has at last been got off.

The new steamer Molicinas has started on the new route in the Uruguay, calling at all the small Oriental ports.

A large lot of new wool sold yesterday in Montevideo, from Mr Tideman's estancia; price paid, 27 rls, against 41 last year. Also one lot Am. hides, 20 000, at 71½ r s.

The clearing out of Lord Dudley's yacht from the Port of Montevideo on Monday night, without any notice being given to the Port Capt, has given rise to disagreeable remarks. We are at a loss to account for such a step, as we feel quite sure there must be some mistake in the matter. No one knows where yacht has gone to. Lord Dudley must certainly have supposed some of his men advised the Capitania Possibly to-day we shall hearn her whereabouts.

The stock of old jerked beef on hand is marked at 25,000qq. which it is thought will be shipped for saladerista account. Of the new beef of the 3 saladeros working at Montevideo, 2 saladeristas will ship for their own account, and the 3rd, has sold all the beef of 1,000 nov kil ed at 42 rls buena. The killing at the Mount this year begun most briskly, and already they have killed 8,625 head against 4,016 for last year.

Messrs Oostendorp and Co's. Antwerp circular 17 ult., is received by the mail and stands for to-morrow; we note they report River Plate produce very down in their market

The steamer Meath, Captain Ormiston, left London on October 4th, Newport October 9th, and Falmouth October 17th, and spoke the following vessels:—

"October 24th Ferro Island 'Canaries' bearing E. N. E., distance 20 miles, barque Firth of Lorne, Glasgow to Adelaide, 18 days, all well.

"October 30th, Lat. 6.34' N. Long. 26.01' W., ship Loch Etive, Glasgow to Melbourne, with passengers, all well.

"November 2nd, Lat. 2.48' South, Long. 29.30' W. the English ship British Ambassador, bound North, which wished to be reported to owner that Captain was dead."

Messrs. Green & Johnson, the energetic agents of the Pacific Steam Navigation Co., advertise an addition to the ports of call for their homeward bound steamers. Dating from the sailing of the Aconcagua, from Montevideo, on 11th inst., all their European boats will touch at Plymouth, and passengers for London and mid and counties save 2 or 3 days, which they would lose if obliged to land as formerly at Liverpool.
